

New Haven

Macomb County, Michigan

The Village of New Haven is located in northeastern Macomb County. The Village, with a land area of 2.5 square miles, comprises the largest incorporated area in Lenox Township.

Between 1980 and 2000 New Haven was one of the fastest growing communities north of Twenty-six Mile Road in the County. During that period, the population of the Village increased sixty-four percent to 3,071 residents. Likewise, the number of housing units increased by eighty-five percent for this same period. The majority of these residential units are located northwest of the Village's central business district.

The Village of New Haven lies in a favorable position in regard to transportation networks. The nearby Interstate 94 provides rapid access to I-696, Detroit and Canada. Passing through the Village is the Grand Trunk Western/CN North America railroad. Its main thoroughfares, New Haven Road and Gratiot Avenue, connect the Village with Mt. Clemens, New Baltimore, Richmond and Memphis.
